What do you think the first words on Mars will be?

For World Space Week, the Mars Society and New Mars are launching First Words, an online competition. We want to know what you think the first words on Mars will be. Over $300 will be awarded in prizes over five categories:

Most Historic, Most Humorous, In Five Words, Out Of Context and Most Original.

Visit www.newmars.com/firstwords to enter the competition!

Famous First Words

We asked these people what their 'first words' would be:

"This time, let's do it right."

Terry Pratchett

"I do not stand on this landscape of iron, this red desert, alone, but with all mankind and all who gazed at this Sphere of Fixed Stars and dreamed one day of touching it."

Lembit Opik, British Member of Parliament
